

Trisha Ahmed

Investigative reporter with six years of relevant experience

(678) 773-9891
tahmedhoque2@gmail.com
www.trishaahmed.com

JOB EXPERIENCE

Howard Center for Investigative Journalism — Investigative and Data Reporter | 2020 - Present

- Led the writing of an international investigation into migrant seafood worker protections – The Associated Press, Washington Post and dozens of outlets published our story.
- Led reporting in national investigations of public housing evictions and COVID-19 eviction bans. The New York Times and hundreds of outlets published our stories.
- Retrieved, organized and analyzed data from the Library of Congress for a national investigation into white-owned newspapers that promoted lynchings.

CNN — Assistant Producer | 2019 - 2020

- Pitched, produced, edited & published 160 videos for the homepage team, yielding over 24 million views to CNN.com.

Stanford University and Johns Hopkins University — Field Interviewer | 2016 - 2018

- Led over 50 long-form interviews with rural renters and public housing tenants to help poverty & inequality scholars write policy reports on economic stability programs.

EDUCATION

University of Maryland — *Master's degree in journalism

2020 - May 2022 | Receiving the top merit-based scholarship

Johns Hopkins University — Bachelor's degree in sociology and social policy | 2014 - 2018 | Concentrated on racial and socioeconomic disparities in Baltimore

SKILLS

Data visualization:

Flourish, Datawrapper
and Adobe Illustrator

Data analysis: R, Google
Sheets and Excel

Audience engagement:
SEO, Chartbeat and
Adobe Analytics

Photos: DSLR cameras
and Adobe Lightroom

Languages: Bengali and Spanish (intermediate)

OTHER EXPERIENCE

Asian American Journalists Association
Investigative fellow, 2021

Capital News Service
Maryland statehouse
reporter, 2021

The Telegraph, India
Visiting reporter, 2018

NPR San Bernardino
Radio volunteer, 2018

Brookings Institution
Research intern, 2017